SPRING SONG

No season is more anticipated,
Than Spring.

No other time does life
 seem more precious
Than Spring.

With flowers blooming...And leaves
Beginning to bud on barren trees...
Turning green.

And in Spring...
Time spent in pursuit of love
By those young...
Reminds those of us that are not.
How blessed we are...
To witness another Spring...

No season does the air seem more fragrant
Than Spring.

No other time does the singing of birds uplift our hearts
Than Spring.

Spring...
A sweet time spent in pursuit of love
By those young...
Reminding those of us that are not.
How blessed we are...
To witness another Spring...

HCC NEWS

PREZ SAYS

Brentwood Days have come and gone and by all reports it was a huge success. We were blessed with great weather, games, entertainment and food. It is without saying that my thanks go out to all the people who made this happen. We have our new directory and once again thanks to all that made this happen. I want to personally add that I think it came out perfect. As far as the month of March it looks like Barb has a full plate for all of us to enjoy so with that said it won't be long before we will be saying goodbye to all of our friends who will be going home and I want to wish everyone a safe trip back to your homes.

Finally as far as our H.C.C. we look to be in good shape for the upcoming months and we will do everything in our power to keep the good times going.

Barry

AAMHO AND YOU

As we are moving out of the community by the end of April, I am resigning as President of our Brentwood AAMHO Chapter. A meeting of the membership shall be held during this April month, members will be notified both by flyers at their house and by the announcement board on the front of the clubhouse. I urge you to come to that meeting and help decide the future course for our chapter.

For my last newsletter column I vacillated between writing one of those "Give 'em Hell Harry" types of letters, or perhaps take a more reflective tone. I have chosen the latter.

This has been a great couple of years. We have addressed and resolved several issues. I trust the AAMHO members shall continue to enter into dialogue with management, working toward resolution of some major concerns held by community residents.

Sincerely, Thom Feit

GOLF NEWS

The winter golf season is coming to an end as many residents begin to make their way back to their home states and provinces. It has been a very successful year for our regular golf on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays as well as Ladies golf on Thursdays, and Couples golf on Fridays. The golf tournaments throughout the year were well attended.

A special thanks goes out to Jim Whitworth for the job he did administering the regular golf dates, recording the monthly handicap changes for our golfers, and score keeping for all of our tournaments. Sharon Eckert and Marian Hargreaves and their teams are also congratulated for preparing wonderful banquet meals for the tournaments.

Thanks to all who participated and we look forward to next fall with the start up Homecoming Tournament in November as we kick off the 2011/2012 golf season. I hope everyone has a great summer and we will see you on the first tee in November.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

This month is Mary Shaw's last Pancake Breakfast until next fall. But don't worry, Peg Copas and her team are taking it over for the summer. Peg promises change and so keep watching to see what she's planning to offer. In the meantime, let's show Mary how much we appreciate her by showing up at the April Breakfast. Saturday, the 9th from 7:30 to 9 AM.

Please sign up for events so we will know how many to plan for—and then be sure to attend or erase your name. Bring your own table service unless otherwise noted.

POOL EXERCISE

As most of the other activities are tapering off for the summer, starting the morning with exercise in the pool becomes more attractive. The day we took this photo, ten ladies attended. The pool is big enough for many more so do come down. You don't have to sign up—just show up in your swimsuit and be ready to have some fun. Anne Baxter leads us in exercises, singing and plenty of laughing. 9:00 AM, MWF Oh, and men are welcome too!

LADIES LUNCHEON

Forty women attended the February meeting—a record number in recent times. We celebrated the 36th Anniversary of the Ladies Luncheon and Marion Severson shared a brief history of Highlands at Brentwood. We also played Card Bingo, a popular card game. Sue Rhodes was our door prize winner.

We did a survey to find out how to improve participation. Anniversary Celebration and Program were the top winners. Anyone who has ideas for good programs for next year should contact Helen Whitworth, 981-1117.

In March, after this newsletter goes to press, Joan and Gordon Will's thirteen year-old granddaughter, Micaela Will, is going to tell us about, Irlen Syndrome, an unusual type of dyslexia, how she lives with it and how it is treated.

In April, Laurie Sammuel will be showing some slides about how nutrition affects our blood. When we are all trying to stay healthy, this should be helpful.

We will meet on April 25th, the 4th Monday of the month, at 12:30 PM. Bring a dollar and a salad or appetizer for six.

CLASSY LASSIES

The Classy Lassies met but were still deciding what do at press time. They will meet again on the first Saturday of the month, April 2nd.

ELS NEWS

FROM THE MANAGER

Here are a few reminders:

It's the time of the year when we see coyotes on the property. And so, it's a good idea not to leave out water, birdseed, pet food or anything else that might attract wildlife. Also, keep your pets on leashes and don't let them wander. They could end up as dinner...

Our bucket of golf balls behind the shed is empty. If anyone has any that they wish to donate or get rid of we will take them.

Any residents that are going to leave the community for 30+ days should stop by the office and complete our form so that we can stop their trash billing and also have their monthly rent bill mailed directly to them.

(If you want to fill it out ahead of time and take it to the office, you can download the Temporary Absence Form from the Herald Online. Editor)

Our new pool furniture has been set out around the pool. Please treat it with the respect you would give your own and use towels to protect it from your wet bodies.

Thank you,

EDITOR'S NOTES

This time of the year For Sale signs bloom on every street. It's a mixed blessing. We gain new friends while losing old friends we've come to love and respect. With housing prices so low this year, several of our residents, including Thom and Barb Feit, have bought local houses. We will miss Thom and his good work with AAMHO, his and Barb's gourmet cooking on Fridays and Barb's great holiday parties. We will just plain miss you, Thom and Barb! We hope you come back often.

We also lost a former resident last month when Ricki Hornstein passed away. As the editor of this newsletter for several years, Ricki deserves special mention here. On a happier note, her husband Mel has returned and now lives here in the park. We look forward to seeing Mel back at work, helping out wherever he can, just like old times.

Your editors have begun planning their summer exodus (as we groan about the high-price of gas.) We will put out one more newsletter before we leave. In June, July, August and September, Peg Copas will keep you up to date on the news via her Out and About weekly email. If you don't have e-mail, she tacks her report up on the clubhouse bulletin board. Do check it out! We'll be back again for an October-November newsletter in the fall.
